

1 Teaching

Staff are working on improving the curriculum using a knowledge based approach.

'Purple Mash' to help with remote and blended learning.

Curriculum resources enhanced and increased in order for pupils to access books at home and to allow for quarantining period when returned.

2 Targeted academic support

School have bought in an expert to help identify reading interventions for specific children that LSAs then deliver.

3 Wider strategies

School has ensured children have additional support to help with social and emotional impact of lockdowns.