What is the book about?
Write a summary of the book. Try not to give away the ending!

How would you feel if the words got stuck in the back of your mouth every time you tried to speak? What if they never came out the way you expected?
In his first picture book, award-winning Canadian author Jordan Scott skilfully describes in poetic language the story of a boy with speech difficulties who finds in his father the foundation capable of reconnecting him with the world around him and helping him find his voice.

Star Rating
★★★★★

Why have you given the book this rating?
I loved this book as it reminds us that it can be hard to learn how to speak and that people who stammer or stutter need support and help and understanding to help them to enjoy school.
