

Drama on Saturday

We had Drama on Saturday. We played drama and acting games, got into family groups and explored the relationships between family members. Then we explored how these families were villagers of the Irish village in 1845. We explored how they coped with the potato famine. They were treated dreadfully by the English, especially when they emigrated to Liverpool to find work and survive.