

Light

Crucial Knowledge

Light sources include natural (the Sun / fire) and artificial (torch/ bulb).

The pupils control the amount of light that is let in through the eyes.

A shadow is a dark area of shape produced by something blocking the light.

The size of shadows can change depending on where the light source is.

Light travels in a straight line.

•Reflection changes the direction in which the light travels.

